

Can your marriage be annulled?

VOIDABLE

VOID

Your marriage is VOIDABLE when:

- One party was suffering from a communicable sexually-transmitted disease at the time
- One party was pregnant at the time

Can it be proved that the other party did not know the above facts at the time?

NO

YES

Your marriage could still be VOIDABLE when:

- One party did not validly consent to the marriage due to
 - Duress
 - A mistake
 - Mental Disorder, as defined in the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act 2008.

Did you bring annulment proceedings within 3 YEARS from the date of the marriage?

NO

YES

Your marriage could still be VOIDABLE when:

- The marriage was not consummated due to:
 - One party being unable to (incapacity)
 - One party being unwilling to (wilful refusal)

Is your marriage one of the above?

NO

YES

*Subject to being challenged by the Defendant

Your marriage is VOID when:

- One party was already married at the time
- One party was under 18
- Both parties are related to each other
- The marriage was not properly solemnised

CONSIDER DIVORCE

ANNULMENT